SIR

Subject - Corporation grant-in-aid to St Mary's Orphanage Cooke Town Civil Area, Bangalore

In enclosing herewith a copy of the resolution of the Corporation dated 15th July 1955 that the grant-in-aid of Rs 500/- per annum to St Mary's orphanage and Industrial School, Cooke Town be continued from the date of discontinuance viz from the year 1954-55 I request you to kindly obtain sanction of Government to the resolution of the Corporation

It may be stated in this connection that the Corporation was paying an annual grant of Rs. 500/- to the Institution up to end of 1953-54 This institution which was formerly located in a rented building in Cambridge Road at No 37, Joughpet, Ulsoor, has been shifted to its present building near the Cooke Town on the Banasvadi Road beyond the limits of the Corporation As such, the Corporation at their meeting held on 27th May 1954 discontinued the grant The authorities of the orphanage however requested the Corporation to reconsider their decision, stating that the institution is serving the children coming from the Corporation area and that it is in the interest of health of these children they had to shift to its new building at Cooke Town of a healthier locality than the previous area The Corporation having considered all these aspects resolved to continue the grant as before Sanction of Government may kindly be obtained to the resolution of the Corporation as per

as per rules laid down in Schedule IV (Financial rules Part I) of Corporation Act

Yours faithfully,

(V P DANADAYALU NAIDU)
